SECTION D – CUSTOMER NOTICES

NOTICE TO CALIFORNIA CUSTOMERS: A married applicant may apply for a separate account.

NOTICE TO OHIO CUSTOMERS: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers and that reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

NOTICE TO NEW YORK CUSTOMERS: In connection with your application for credit, a consumer report may be obtained which contains information on your credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capability and general reputation. If you request, you will be informed whether a consumer report was obtained and if so, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency which furnished the report. If your application is granted, subsequent consumer reports may be obtained in connection with any update, extension or renewal of credit.

NOTICE TO WISCONSIN CUSTOMERS: No provisions of a marital property agreement, unilateral statement under section 778.59 Wisc. Stats. Or a court decree under Section 776.70 adversely affects the interest of the creditor unless the creditor, prior to the time credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, settlement, or Decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the creditor is incurred.

By signing this Credit Application, I (1) make the above representations, which are certified true, correct, and complete, for the purpose of obtaining credit, (2) authorize you to investigate my credit, employment and income references and to gather such other information that you consider necessary and appropriate. (3) authorize you to give credit reporting agencies and others information regarding your credit experience with me, and (4) understand that you will retain this application whether or not it is approved.
